Well, maybe she had it right.

A pastor in Atlanta tells about a woman who prepared his worship bulletin for him but who did not have an extensive knowledge of church hymns. He handed her a rough draft of the service hoping she could discern what he had written. When she handed him the finished bulletin to read, he saw that the final hymn was listed as "Just As I Am, Without a Clue." "Without a clue" or "without a plea," whatever, we still need Jesus, don't we?
