POTLUCK

Zoe Vorndran Graduation Party
2:00 – 4:00 at the church

Today, following Sunday school classes and a light lunch in the fellowship hall, David Sollenberger, Church of the Brethren videographer, will be speaking about and showing videos from his recent trip to Nigeria in the overflow room at about 11:45. This presentation will give us more insight into the situation in Nigeria – particularly as it relates to the EYN Church of the Brethren and the Nigerian Crisis Relief Effort.

Daily devotions

EYN leaders in Nigeria believe prayer is one of the most important ways to support the Nigerian people and the Church. You can also share in daily devotions that were written by EYN members and published by the Church of the Brethren in Nigeria. Reading them daily is a powerful way we can be in solidarity and connect with brothers and sisters caught in this crisis.

EYN's daily devotional for 2015 is posted a week at a time at:

www.brethren.org/nigeriablog.

Despite a burned church, EYN continues to meet and pray.

“Our job is to love others without stopping to inquire whether or not they are worthy. That is not our business and, in fact, it is nobody's business. What we are asked to do is to love, and this love itself will render both ourselves and our neighbors worthy.”

~ Thomas Merton

We continue to be thankful for ALL the wonderful ways you have supported us. You have brought tears to our eyes and words of joy to our lips. May God give to each one at Lincolnshire a tremendous blessing. Our prayers for the congregation continue. Thanks again, everyone, for your love and care. ~ Robin and Rosemary La Rue

Paul and Aletha Sills express their heartfelt thanks to the youth group for planting flowers and sprucing up their yard on a recent service trip. Paul and Aletha are cheered by the colorful array of flowers that “nod hello” to them from the front of the house.

Kathy Hause is thankful for all the cards and prayers following her recent trip to the hospital. Medical testing revealed conditions that will call for further exploration.

POTLUCK NEXT SUNDAY!

Plan to attend Sunday’s potluck to celebrate the happy moments in the lives of the young people in our congregation. Lucy Wages, daughter of Tim and Beth Wages, will be consecrated, Kyle Creed, Zakk Strole and Zoe Vorndran celebrate their graduations, and Summer Forum programs begin. Bring a dish to share and remember.....there’s room at the table for YOU!
