Sunday in Lent

"Outside Looking In"

Phillippians 3: 17 - 4:1

Christians who are mature in the faith have something distinctive about them that enable those who look to them to recognize what's inside. These people are examples for other Christians to follow. Someone said, "Most of the time, our commitment to Christ is not visible until something happens that causes us to act in a way that shows we are followers of Jesus."

"Unsubscription Offer"

I Corinthians 10: 1-13

We pray that God's loving presence be with those who are healing and that they will be blessed with returning health. We continue to pray for God's peace and comfort for those who face daunting health challenges.

Aletha Sills is now recovering and gaining strength at home.

Carol Williams continues her recovery at home.

Ron Nicodemus recovering from complications of heart surgery.

Robin La Rue, lovingly held in our daily prayers.

Arielle Wolf always remains in our hearts and prayers.

Carolyn Sorenson, close friend of Evelyn Bickel, on Hospice Care.

Dick Richie, Cheryl Leverton's father, slowly recovering from major surgery and complications.

Tom and Betty Dawson ask for prayers for Tom's sister-in-law recovering from a heart attack. They also ask for prayers for the relief of migraine headaches for Betty.

Janet Peters asks for prayers for their family as they struggle with ongoing health problems.

Remio Batalona, after six long months, is now free from his neck brace and must get used to NOT having it on! He says it will take some adjusting! Such good sunshine news!

Dear Lincolnshire friends,

Your prayers and kind attentions have been a great source of comfort in this difficult hour. I am eager to get this behind me and rejoice with you in worshipping our great God!

~ Stan Clauss

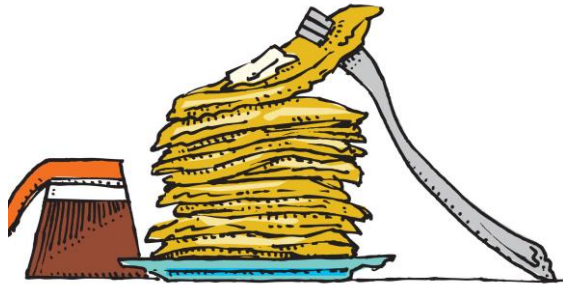

(Stan sent a lovely Thank You card which is on the bulletin board.)

Helping each other...

There is no more important work in this world, no greater duty, than to help others to keep up their courage.

Next Sunday! February 28! A Pancake Brunch...

Next Sunday, during Coffee and Donut time, Lincolnshire's youth will be serving hot pancakes and syrup for your mid-morning pleasure. (There will be no donuts that morning.) They are asking for free-will offerings to kick start funding for Camp Mack summer camps. Got questions? Contact Amy Kolb, our Camp Mack representative.

Creekside COB is looking at the possibility of a Spring 2016 Women's Retreat that would involve women from all the churches in the northern Indiana District and bring in nationally known author, Debra White Smith. The projected date is Saturday, April 16th from 9 – 3. Covering her speaker's fee and expenses, including travel and an overnight stay is more than one church can do but 10 or 20 churches could make it happen. Once they have the commitments in place, they will reserve the speaker and choose the topic and publicity that will go out to churches in the District. At this time they are asking for a $100 contribution per church. Judy Steckly has placed a table in the back of the sanctuary that has information on the speaker as well as box in which you can put your contribution. All contributions are welcomed!

Lent is an occasion for us to journey with Christ... into tomorrow. For you never walk with Christ long but what the dawn breaks, the sun shines and hope breaks through. ~ C. Neil Straight
