This Week at Lincolnshire

Monday, July 10

8:30 a.m. Women's Bible Study
@ Spyro's on Jefferson

Mack News

Listening sessions are scheduled for Tuesday, July 11 and Wednesday July 12. The Camp Mack Staff wants to know what you think about Camp Mack. What do you think makes it so special? What could be improved? What do you see as the most important work that can be done in the future?

A meeting is scheduled at Camp Mack on July 11 at 7:00 p.m. The staff really wants you to share your thoughts and ideas so they can continue to grow and develop their ministry. If you plan on attending, please email Mike@CampMack.org or call 574-658-4831. They really want your ideas!

Camp Mack Festival is in the planning stages. Auction chair, Deb Roe, would like each church to provide something for the auction. It can be a theme basket, a quilt or comforter, an antique or ??? Lincolnshire will have their renowned "Lincolnshire Stew" again this year for the Food and Crafts. Jan Ward has already scheduled us with Sue Freel, the Chair.

Your prayers are also requested for the staff and for the energy needed for that demanding ministry. Prayer also for the campers that they may experience God's love. And pray for all of camp's hosted rental camps and guests.

SYRIA: The Ongoing Crisis

Sunday's Forum focuses on Syria. Syria is located in southwestern Asia and is one of the countries that make up the Middle East. Today's discussion, led by Sam Jarjour with the Indiana Center for Middle East Peace, will include 1) the history and demographics of the country, 2) the history of the conflict and the resulting refugee problem and 3) conclude with how you can help. Plan to stay and participate in this informative discussion.

July 29
8:00 - 11:00

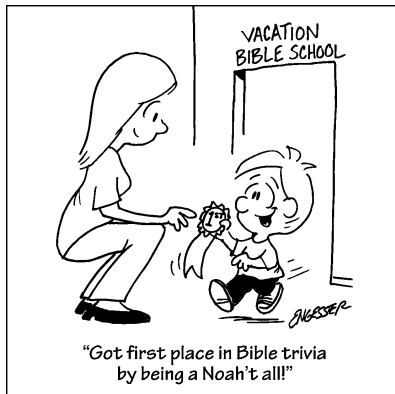

Thanks to the mowing team that keeps the church lawn so well manicured. With the repeated rains this summer, it has required a little more mowing time than usual. That extra mowing is certainly appreciated.

And the repeated rains have brought about a growth explosion in the shrubbery! So the Property Management Team...Marv Loutsenhizer, Howard Pletcher, Jack Steckly and Stan Gorom are declaring July 29 as "National Lincolnshire Yard Work Day"! They are asking for help in trimming shrubs, weeding, removing dead shrubs, cleaning the window wells and perhaps edging the sidewalk to the front door. If you have some spare time on July 29, please join this hard-working crew! Call anyone on the team and let them know you will be there. Please bring your own tools such as rakes, trimmers, etc. A mid-morning break treat will be served!

LifeWay Christian Stores

Many of us were very disappointed when the Family Christian Bookstore closed in Jefferson Pointe. So we were quite happy when we received a flyer in the mail announcing the opening of the Fort Wayne LifeWay Christian Store in the Coldwater Crossing Shopping Center. I think it is in the northwest corner and was the site of another Christian book store that had also closed. Their store hours are Monday thru Saturday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. They are closed Sunday. Just thought I would pass this information along in case you didn't get the flyer in your mailboxes.
