As a security measure, on Sunday mornings the back door is locked at 10:15, and front door is locked around 10:45.

There is fireplace wood available on the north side of the ditch of the church property for anyone who has a fireplace and has the means to pick it up. The wood needs to be split. If interested, please see Stan Gorom or Marv Loutsenhizer.

The church book club will meet this Monday, November 26 at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Ruth Strole. This month's book review and discussion is "Little Fires Everywhere" by Celeste Ng. All interested women are invited to attend.

Janice Circle has moved! Her new address is:

We always thank GOD for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers.

1 Thessalonians 1:2, NIV

Last Sunday was a wonderful day in which we celebrated and showed our deep appreciation for Pastors Paul and Cheryl with a special cake (from their flock!), a special dollar gift, an outstanding potluck and a basket full of love and wishes! A huge

THANK YOU goes to Jan Ward and her kitchen crew for organizing the successful potluck, to everyone who brought food for sharing and another HUGE THANK YOU for the hospitality that you all extended to the Westerfield family. Thanks also to the folks who stayed to wash dishes and clean up. Also, thanks to the Hospitality team for the specially made nametags for the Westerfield family and for welcoming the big crowd of 108 people that came through the front door. As a member of the Westerfield family said, "We will remember this wonderful day for a very, very long time."

The Camp Mack newsletter continues to be a wonderful source of information about the many activities and opportunities that are available at the camp. Gene Hollenberg, Executive Director, always writes an interesting and inspirational monthly cover letter that directs our thinking to the importance of the camp. I especially liked the November issue which had several beautiful color photos. Todd Eastis, Communication Specialist, recently gave us an interesting presentation on the Camp and the murals. If you are not receiving the newsletter and would like to do so, he will be happy to include you in future direct mass emails. Just let me know by email or note and I'll send him our listing. Thanks, Sara L.

Although this is now Thanksgiving and soon to be December, thought you might like to know that it was another successful Camp Mack Festival. Over $17,000 was raised at this year's festival making it one of the most successful ever. Among several of the reasons that Gene Hollenberg found the festival to be so special was that he saw so many people happily working together from different congregations, happy children, musical groups and other entertainers sharing God's love for everyone and his wife was thrilled that he didn't have to grow a beard!

Did you know that Camp Mack can host your next holiday gathering or celebration? They can serve groups of 25-300 people in their dining halls. Contact the camp for the space and let them cater your next event.

Pastor Paul and Pastor Cheryl are taking well-earned vacation days and will be back Monday, November 26. In their absence on Sunday, Pastor Sue Richard will give the message this morning. She and her husband, Wesley were Mennonite self-supporting, English teaching missionaries in Japan for nearly 20 years after which they served as Church of the Brethren co-pastors in inner city Lima, Ohio. At the same time, Wesley taught at Bluffton University in Ohio. Their retirement destination was Goshen, IN and home church has become West Goshen CoB. They find ways to serve both locally and through the Mennonite service program for Senior Adults.

Be good; keep your feet dry, your eyes open, your heart at peace and your soul in the joy of Christ. - Thomas Merton
