Let the dawn of morning be to you as the beginning of life, and every setting of the sun be to you as its close. Then let every one of those short lives leave its sure record of some kindly thing done for others, some goodly strength or knowledge gained for yourself. ~ John Ruskin

In the gospel of John, Jesus makes this statement during the Last Supper: "I am with you only a little longer. ... I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (John 13:33-35, NRSV). Maundy Thursday is a time of sharing with others, showing loving concern for one another, and the partaking of Holy Communion. That is what the Lord asked of his disciples and asks of us. Join us this Thursday, March 29 at 7:00 p.m. as in community, we reflect and share on the meaning of His commandment.
