Next Sunday's Forum...

Zoe Vorndran will share of her excellent and exciting adventures in Ireland this spring semester.

Summer Forum meets in the Overflow Room at 9:00 a.m. and replaces Sunday school for adults.

Next Sunday, June 24, Pastor Paul and Cheryl begin their sermon series on "The Battlefield of the Mind" by Joyce Meyer. A review from "Good Reads" says this about her book:

Worry, doubt, confusion, depression, anger and feelings of condemnation: all these are attacks on the mind. If readers suffer from negative thoughts, they can take heart! Joyce Meyer has helped millions win these all-important battles. In her most popular bestseller ever, the beloved author and minister shows readers how to change their lives by changing their minds. She teaches how to deal with thousands of thoughts that people think every day and how to focus the mind the way God thinks. And she shares the trials, tragedies, and ultimate victories from her own marriage, family, and ministry that led her to wondrous, life-transforming truth--and reveals her thoughts and feelings every step of the way. You will not want to miss this stirring sermon series that will help you deal with the thoughts that take away our joy. A devotional book that serves as a companion to the sermon series is also available at the back of the sanctuary. The cost is only $5.00.

Dear Lincolnshire family,

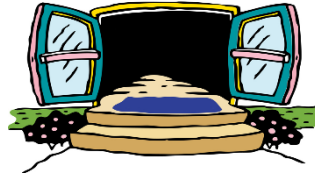

I wish I knew how to truly express how very much your many cards, prayers and notes of encouragement have meant over the past many weeks. The cards are read over and over and mean so much each time. All I can say is THANK YOU, THANK YOU, and THANK YOU! Your kindnesses mean the world to me and Herb.

Blessings and Peace,
Dorothy Tripp

Our Ministry at the Door

A bag of grits... rolls of paper towels, food bags with boxes of cereal for “grandbabies” a devotional...a word of prayer for someone who had recently lost a family member and was deeply saddened...someone looking for a blessing. Last week, two people came to the church door asking for food and prayer. The lady asking for food was so verbally thankful for food bags and was WILDLY excited over the bag of grits for her “grandbabies” and said that she NEVER has money to buy paper towels. We joined hands with three folks needing prayer with Pastor Paul leading the prayer. The ministry of hospitality and caring is not just for Sunday morning. It reaches out through the week giving food and words of hope to those in need around us. Thank you for your support of this ministry with your food donations and your caring prayers for those less fortunate.

Blessings Bestowed

When author Gary Smalley asked 100 people to share how they knew they'd received their parents' blessings, they offered these memories of fatherly love:

- My father put his arm around me at church and let me lay my head on his shoulder.
- When my father faced a transfer at work, he purposely took another job so I could finish my senior year in high school.
- When I wrecked my parents' car, my father's first reaction was to hug me and let me cry instead of yelling at me.
- My father went with me to the store when I had to return a purchase I regretted.
- My father let me practice pitching to him for a long time after work.
- My father cried during my wedding because he was going to miss me being at home.

Love's many forms.

Joy is love exalted; peace is love in repose; long-suffering is love enduring; gentleness is love in society; goodness is love in action; faith is love on the battlefield; meekness is love in school; and temperance is love in training.

~ D. L. Moody

Columbia City CoB hosts Ken Medema in Concert Saturday, August 25 at 7:00 p.m.

Legally blind Christian musician Ken Medema's passion for music began at the tender age of five while playing on his mother's piano. Born in Grand Rapids Michigan in 1942, he grew up during a time when blindness was not widely accepted.

Medema started professional musical instruction when he was eight. Through the careful instruction of his teacher, he was able to use Braille music sheets and his memory to learn the classics. He was encouraged to be innovative with his music style and his musical talent flourished. In 1969 Medema received a Master's Degree in Music Therapy from Michigan State University. Medema began recording albums for Word and Shawnee Press in 1973 and in 1985 founded an independent recording company in Grandville Michigan. He called his new company Bier Patch Music. By 2002 Medema had produced several albums, and presented thousands of piano and voice performances all over North America, Australia, Africa and Europe.
