Celebrating Marie Clark's 100th birthday with an Open House this afternoon from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. at Lutheran Life Villages, 6701 S. Anthony Blvd. in the Heritage Room. You all are invited!

Getting to know Marie...

Marie was born in Bluffton, Wells County on the family farm. She was one of six children. Twins Leone and Ione were the oldest, then came Marie, followed by Chris Burgette, Gene Valentine and Betty Kast. The family moved to Fort Wayne when Marie was in the third grade where she attended James Smart Elementary and Central High School. She said that both schools have since met the wrecking ball and disappeared into time. After graduation, she worked at General Electric for several years and "helped it grow" with her sharp abilities and dedication. She has one son, Bruce Stalter (Sue), two grandsons, Justin and Brian and two stepdaughters, Deborah King and Charlotte Clark. When asked what three sentences best describe her, she responded, "I like being well groomed and well dressed, I have a good sense of humor and I like being with people." And doesn't that truthfully describe her? Would you be surprised to learn that at the age of 69, she managed to finally sit upon Santa Claus's lap? (Anybody else remember this event?) Her music tastes embrace the old hymns that have survived through the years and she loves to hear them played and sung on Sunday mornings. Although reading can be a challenge today, she enjoyed reading the Amish books that came from the church library. What a pleasure it was to chat with Marie learning that which was not known of her life and sharing precious memories of the past. ~ Sara L.
