The Annual Conference will again be partnering with Backpack Beginnings in Greensboro for our Witness to the Host City as we did in 2016. The mission of Backpack Beginnings is to provide children in need with nutritious food, comfort items, and basic necessities. See today's insert for suggested items to contribute. Thank you for considering a donation to this worthy cause for the children in the Greensboro area.

Jack Steckly also thanks you for your ongoing contributions to Lincolnshire's Food Pantry. Only this morning, a young lady came seeking food for her family which consisted of her own family plus the children from another family for whom she cares. Oftentimes it may seem that we ask for contributions too often but for the needy who come to our doors, it is your beautiful response that brings a smile of thankfulness as they pick up their bags. YOU are extending yet another form of hospitality!

The origin of Father's Day

One Sunday in 1909, Sonora Smart Dogg listened to a sermon honoring mothers. Her mother had died some years before, so her father had raised her by himself. Dodd wondered why there wasn't a day to honor fathers, so she arranged a tribute to her father at a church in Spokane, Washington. The date was June 19, 1910. Many people believe this was the beginning of Father's Day.

Another account holds that a West Virginia Church held a tribute service for fathers in 1908, following a mine explosion that killed 360 men. Regardless of which story is correct, President Calvin Coolidge was the first president to designate a special day to honor fathers. In 1924, he proclaimed the third Sunday in June as Father's Day.

Joe: What does your father do for a living?

Jon: He's a magician. He performs tricks, like sawing people in half.

Joe: Do you have any brothers or sisters?

Jon: Yep, four half-sisters and a half-brother.

Jon: What's the difference between a high-hit baseball and a maggot's father?

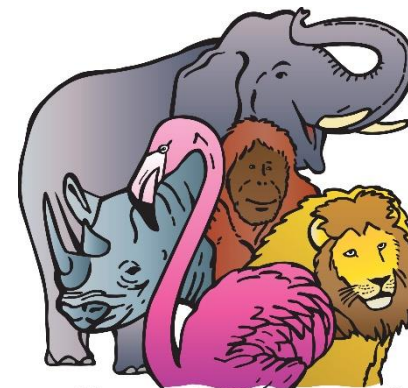

Tom: What?

Jon: One's a pop fly. The other's a fly pop.
