Sunday School classes begin September 9 at 9:00 a.m. There are classes for all ages, children and adults. The teachers and class materials are listed here below:

Cheryl Leverton will teach Preschool through Kindergarten.
Marlene Bell will teach Primary-1st Grade through 4th Grade.
Bethany Mann, Megan Swaidner and Cheryl Richardson will teach 5th Graders through High School (Generation Y).

Curriculum for these classes will be from Brethren Press.

The Altruist Class meeting across from the Library will be studying Parables: The Greatest Stories Ever Told which is a LifeGuide Study. Among the 12 Parables are the “Good Samaritan” and “The Sower”, as well as less familiar ones such as “Wheat and Tares” and “Money and Self-Worth.”

Heather Grady’s class meets in the Parlor which is located downstairs. The class will be studying the book “An Alter in the World”, authored by Barbara Brown Taylor. Her writings in this book center around two questions: “What might you tell me about your life?” or “Who are You?” and “Where have you met the Divine in the ordinary moments of your life?”

Women’s Bible Study also begins on September 9 at 9:15 a.m. through 10:45 a.m. “The Church of Small Things” is the text being used and is based on the book of Ruth. Themes are faithfulness, words and friendships. The class will be meeting in the room across from the library.
